MESSAGE FROM THE DISPATCHERS

CHECKING IN – Class “A” Dispatch Rule #6

“The only way to be taken off a board once you are checked in: take a job, flop a job, an injury or illness (medical documentation may be required), going on vacation (must be five (5) consecutive days), changing categories and/or shift (night to day; day to night), members must show proof if challenged.”

DISPATCHING RULES FOR GANGS AND/OR LONGSHOREMEN – Class “A” Dispatch Rule #9

“If during dispatching hours, a Longshoreman wishes to be temporarily absent from the Hall, he/she may instruct the Dispatcher in person that another Longshoreman will accept any job for which he/she may be called. The absent Longshoreman shall be held responsible for any job accepted by his/her substitute.”

DISPATCHING RULES FOR GANGS AND/OR LONGSHOREMEN – Class “A” Dispatch Rule #25

“All Longshoremen must check their respective category boards and make corrections of hours before dispatch. No corrections shall be made once dispatch has started. Corrections shall be called for five (5) minutes prior to the start of dispatch. No information regarding averages or flops on any category boards shall be given over the telephone.”
